MANILA MENTIONS.

The Filipino Chief, Aguinado, Still Not Fat.

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 17.—Colonel Howe, who occupied Victoria, to the northeast of Manila, Tuesday last, has advanced to Baguio. This is a long jump and remarkable in view of the rain and mud. It brings Mac-Arthur in touch with Lawton's force.

Two thousand insurgents are reported gathering at Baguio, ten miles north of Manila, and a thousand are said to be in the mountains to the west.

General Young is moving rapidly to the north. He is now near San Fabian.
Aguinaldo and his government are said to be making desperate efforts to escape to Baguio. All the information here is that he is still in the low country.

Lieutenant Johnston, with troop M, captured at San Nicolas twelve hundred, including the wardrobe of Aguinaldo's wife, the records of the secretary of war and much communications and medical supplies, remain.
Aguinaldo probably escaped over the divide.

The names of Lieutenant Gilmore and seven of his men were found written on the walls of the convent of San Quintin.

The remains of Major John A. Logan, killed in action at Manila Saturday, were buried in Taclo city.

TOOK A TUMBLE.

Two Teamsters Have a Close Call at the New "Fill."

Two drivers have within the past day or two had narrow escapes at the new "coldwell street" "fill," which is being raised. The first one was Bunk Ester's driver, who backed the wagon off the embankment, about fifty feet high. Horses, team and driver mingled in an undistinguishable mass until the bottom was reached.
Fortunately no one was hurt.
Yesterday a driver for Wm. Allen did the same thing, but with more disastrous results.

READY FOR TRIAL.

Battleship Kentucky Manned
With Crew of 200 Men.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Nov. 17.—
The new battleship Kentucky left the shipyard today for the Brooklyn navy yard, where she will be sent into the big dry dock Saturday preparatory to her official trial off the Massachusetts coast. Her bunkers have been filled with picked steam coal, and all of her supplies are aboard, and a picked crew of two hundred men has been selected.

TO STEAL A DISTRICT

Goebelites Want the Vote of the Fifth District Thrown Out.

BOLD MOTION MADE TODAY

From Frankfort It Is Reported
Gov. Bradley Has Would-Be Usurpers Guessing.

SOME SIGNIFICANT STATEMENTS

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 17.—A motion was made before the county election commission this forenoon to throw out the entire vote of the fifth congressional district. The object is readily recognized. Seeing Goebel hat-ten by every other fraudulent means the gang hopes to seat him by nullifying the entire vote of Jefferson county. There is great excitement over the matter.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 17.—The Goebelites have thrown off all disguise.
They say they need votes and will get them by throwing out the whole city. They also declare they will tip-toe Judge Toney for doing his duty. Efforts are being made to intimidate Judge Barr. The Post is out in a leader declaring Goebel the most shameless carpet bagger in the history of the south. There is much excitement all over the city over the contemplated steal of Jefferson county.

FRANKFORT, Nov. 17.—Governor Bradley has the members of both parties guessing what hand he will take in the event of a collision between Goebel and Taylor over the governor-ship. Bradley's close friends say if the state board goes behind the original returns in order to obtain for him a certificate of election, the governor himself will not take it, but he is in conference with Adjutant General Collier almost constantly.
Times of this kind are worrying the Democratic leaders. No governor will be inaugurated December 12, the date prescribed by law. The state election commission has not been convened to canvass the returns.
The law provides that it must meet not later than December 4.

DEATH IN MARSHALL.

Frank Waisner Dies Near Sharpe
Last Night.

Frank Waisner, aged 16, died last night at his home near Sharpe, Marshall county, from pneumonia. He was an orphan boy, raised by Mr. J.
M. Wallace, of that section, and was respected by all who knew him. He leaves quite an estate, having about 100 acres of land left him by his father.

MARRY SUNDAY.

Prominent Man of Carlisle Coun-ty to Wed McCracken Belle

Mr. Floyd H. Mabry, a prominent young merchant of Cunningham, Carlisle county, and Miss Jennie W.
Quarles, of the Maxon's Mills section of this county, will be married at the home of the bride Sunday.
Mr. Mabry arrived today and has secured his license. It had not been decided today what minister would perform the ceremony.

PLEADED WITH JURY.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 17.—Pearl Hart, the alleged woman bandit, who, with Joe Boot, held up a stage near Florence, Ariz., last June, was acquitted at the trial before Judge Dean at Florence. Another warrant was issued, and the woman is now held on a charge of interfering with the United States mails. Pearl Hart addressed the jury in a passionate and eloquent manner, pleading to return to Canada and get one last look at her mother, who was not expected to live long, and this, it is thought, secured her acquittal.

MURDEROUS FATHER.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Cornelius Corcoran, a day laborer, this morning shot fatally three of his children, killed one and then himself. Tragedy took place in family home.
Corcoran was doubtless insane.

MURDERER HANGED.

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Emil Rol-linger was hanged here at noon for the murder of his wife, Theresa, last December. Cook county officials say he was one of the coolest men ever executed.

NEW REVOLT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—A dispatch from Bahia, Brazil, says a revolution has broken out there and that the authorities have prohibited the transmission of code dispatches.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

and cooler.

CAUCUS TONIGHT.

Old and New Members of the City Council This Evening.

The six members of the city council re-elected and the six new members, will tonight hold a caucus at the city hall for the purpose of nominating men for the various offices to be filled. These offices are:
City attorney, two years.
City clerk, two years.
City treasurer, two years.
Hospital steward, two years.
City engineer, one year.
City physician, one year.
City weigher, one year.
City printer, one year.
Wharfmaster, one year.
Chief of fire department, assistant chief, one year each.
Sewer inspector, one year.
Two members of the board of health for three years each.

There seems to be a question of whether or not a woman can legally under the city ordinance and charter, hold office of hospital steward. The ordinance says nothing about anything save "he, his, or him." It is inferred from the charter and ordinance, according to Mayor Lang, that it was not contemplated that a woman should hold the position.
This question will come before the council tonight.

The candidates for the offices are:
City attorney, R. T. Lightfoot.
City assessor, H. F. Lyon, Will Byrd, Tom Harris, Pat O'Brien and J. V. Greif.
Sewer inspector, Geo. Gardner.
Hospital steward, Hugh Craft, Mrs.
Bouchett and J. T. McKinney.
City engineer, Jas. W. DeLox.
Fire chief, Jas. Wood.
Assistant fire chief, Wm. August-us, Walter Ingram, Jake Editt, John Slaughter.
City weigher, Thomas Baird, Chas.
Sinkard and — Adams.
City clerk, Ed Rivers, J. W. Fisher and Wm. Patterson.
City physician, Hestig and L. Sanders.
City treasurer, C. E. Richardsen, L. Wharfmaster, S. A. Fowler.

KILLED AT HOLLOW ROCK.

Aged Woman Run Over By a Train There Last Night.

Mrs. F. W. Stokes, an aged lady, and wife of a blind man, was killed last night at Hollow Rock Junction on the N. & C. St. L. railroad.
It appears her husband was trying to cross the railroad track, and called to her to know if he was over. She ran to his assistance, seeing that No.
61, the passenger train on its way to Paducah in charge of Conductor McLean, was about to strike him, and was herself killed, being badly mutilated.

BRICK WORK COMMENCES.

The New Depot Now Well Under Way South of Town.

The brick work on the new Illinois Central depot commenced yesterday, and a large force of men is now at work on it. The depot will be completed as soon as possible, which will be in a few weeks, it is hoped.

COUNTY COURT.

The case of Mike Iseman against the I. C. for $100 for alleged injuries to a wagon and the killing of a mule by the railroad, took up today in Judge Tully's court.

This morning the jury was taken out on a street car by Deputy Sheriff Rogers and to the place where the accident occurred a few weeks ago, at the intersection of Tennessee street.

The case will doubtless be finished by this afternoon.

WANTED IN MAYFIELD.

Deputy Sheriff Ogilvie returned this afternoon from the county. He this morning near Collierville arrested Will Thompson charged with gambling and John Herrington, charged with disturbing a lawful assemblage.
Both young men being wanted in Mayfield, Graves county.
They gave bond for their appearance.

DIED IN LOUISIANA.

Mr. John Stevenson this afternoon received a telegram that Mr.
Chas. Good, formerly of the city, but lately of Brooklyn, Ill., died today in Alaine, La., where he was at work in a sugar mill. No particulars were given. He was 22 years old and the remains will be taken to Brooklyn for interment. Mr. Stevenson resides at 903 Tennessee street and is an uncle of the deceased.

BRITISH IN CLOSE QUARTERS

LONDON, Nov. 17.—An official dispatch from Cape Town says General Hillier reports from Estcourt that 20 of the Dublin Fusiliers, who were on an anchored train are missing together with Captain Haldane, of the Gordon Highlanders. The general gives the names of the known casualties.
He says he sent a mounted force to cover the British retreat. Up to that time an even hundred were missing.

PRETORIA, Nov. 17.—Standard and Hugger News of 10th prints list this hundred British prisoners now at race track.

LORENZO, Marquet, Nov. 17.—Advices of reliable nature say that Boers subjected Ladysmith to a severe bombardment from guns which reached the whole town. Shells rained on the besieged city from all points of the compass.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The report that three thousand Boers were advancing on Estcourt is officially confirmed.

PRETORIA, Nov. 17.—A Boer general reporting from camp at Klipsdrift, on the 9th, says: "Ladyssmith is completely encircled by our forces. Our second gun has been successfully mounted on Bulwer Hill.
The firing of the heavy guns commenced this morning. General Buller telegraphed from the south batteries that he opened a heavy fire with big guns and had continuously dropped shells into the works around Ladysmith. The Pretoria force was in a tight place, having taken a position commanded by the British fire, which was so hot that the position became untenable. The big gun, however, saved the day."

LONDON, Nov. 17.—General Buller cables that a hundred British are missing as a result of a disaster to an anchored train north of Estcourt.

DEARSTATION, Cape Colony, Nov.
17.—On the 15th there was skirmishing between Boers and British in the vicinity of Coleburg. The British captured two wagon loads of guns and ammunition from the Orange Free State detachments.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 17.—Natal dispatches seem to indicate two armed trains are missing near Estcourt. The second is supposed to have had twenty-five men on board.

THE NEW RAILROAD.

Faith In Proposed Chicago, Paducah and Southwestern Line.

The Metropolis Herald of Thursday says: "Having completed the preliminary survey from Vienna to Metropolis and located the line in this city, the surveyors for the Chicago, Paducah and Southwestern road left Thursday night for Vienna to locate the line from Vienna to a point on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois.

"That the new road will utilize the old McLean road from Vienna to Round Knob is certain. From that point, two lines have been surveyed into Metropolis, both coming into the city on lower Second street. Second street will be followed to the bayou below Kampendahl's stove factory, and will cross the Illinois Central's tracks just above that factory, cutting across to Front street below the Excelsior factory, and continuing up to Fort Massac. The incline will be located from the site of the Cutting ship yard to the waters edge below the power house.

"As soon as the survey is completed in Johnson county, the engineers will likely survey the line from just across the river into Paducah.

"Every novice indicates that the work is to be rushed as rapidly as possible.
In fact one of the directors, who was in town a few days ago, informed us that if the line was located and the right of way secured, that he could give us the most positive assurance that the road would be completed as fast as men and money could build it."

SHOT AT OFFICERS.

Unknown Man Attempts to Shoot Officer Miles, Futrell.

Officers Miles Futrell and Adams are the "Rough Riders" in the First ward. They ride horses over their beats at night.

Night before last as they were going out on the Hinkleville road, near the graveyard, a man got out on the road and commanded them to halt. He drew a pistol and found himself confronted with mounted officers. He attempted to escape but officer Futrell gave chase and the fugitive shot at him. The officer fired back, but so far as is known, failed to do any damage.
Every effort will be made to find the man who thus defied law and the officers.

YESTERDAY'S WRECK.

It Was One of the Most Destructive in Many Months.

The wreck of cannon ball No. 204, near Pleasure Ridge park, a few miles out of Louisville, yesterday morning, was one of the worst that has occurred on the I. C. for many months, although fortunately no one was killed.

The I. C. train was going very fast and the L. H. and St. L., or "Texas" train, which uses the I. C. tracks as far as West Point, failed to take the sidetrack, and the trains came together in the fog. The engineers and other of the train men jumped, with the exception of Fireman Cas-sin, of the I. C., who was pinned under the debris, but rescued by the passengers. The engines were almost totally demolished and the baggage coaches caught fire but the flames were extinguished by the passengers, who fought them with dirt.

The list of injured is as follows:
G. B. Shaw, postal clerk I. C., left leg broken and terribly bruised.
W. B. Hinkley, baggage-master E.
H. and St. L., back badly hurt and bruised.

Sam Lowther, engineer I. C., back and side badly injured.
W. J. Cassin, fireman I. C., severe cuts and bruises about the body.

A. H. Evans, conductor L. H. and St. L., badly sprained ankle.

Among the passengers on the Illinois Central train were Cardinal Gibbons and Bishop Foley, of Detroit, who were returning from a conference with Archbishop Chapin at New Orleans. After the collision Cardinal Gibbons walked up and down the country road nearby reading his breviary. A number of Catholic clergymen were on the train. Cardinal Gibbons and party went straight on to Baltimore.

Conductor Evans, of the "Texas," is one of the oldest conductors on the road, and had a bone in his leg broken. Despite this he walked over a mile to give the facts in the case.

It is said that the Texas trainmen overlooked their orders. Soon after leaving Pleasure Ridge park, the engineer realized it and informed the fireman that they had overlooked their orders.

"Yes, there she comes now," replied the fireman, and both then jumped. They had shut off and slowed up as soon as they remembered that they were to go into the side-track at the Alms-house, and this made the Texas train almost stationary when it was hit, or the results would have been still more disastrous.

The accommodation due to arrive here at 4:30 p. m. was delayed six hours by the wreck, but the New Orleans limited, due at 6 p. m. yesterday was delayed only one hour.

POLICE COURT.

There was but one case in the police court this morning and that was a small breach of the peace case, in which one fine of $5 was assessed.

ALLARD ESTATE

Final Settlement Now Made of Kentucky Property.

All Due C. O. Allard of Father's Vast Possessions Was a Paltry $559.85.

A final settlement of the Oliver Allard estate was made in the circuit court this morning, and of all the property owned by C. Oliver Allard in McCracken county, three or four years ago, all that he had remaining was a balance of $559.85. The remainder of his possessions, amounting to forty or fifty thousand dollars, have been sold in pursuance of orders of court, and divided among the plaintiffs and their lawyers, and the other attorneys, commissioners and so forth.

It will be remembered that a few years ago C. O. Allard was one of the most comfortably fixed men, financially in the county.

His sister-in-law, Mrs. Josephine Spaulding, in behalf of her two children, Tom and Miss Edna Allard, filed suit to break the will of the late J. L.
Allard, and give a share of his property to the children of his deceased son.

The case was ably contested but the jury decided that what purported to be the last will and testament of the late J. L. Allard, was not, and the children, under a subsequent compromise, received what was claimed.

One of the attorneys received about $5,000 as a fee. The settlement has been dragging along slowly, but was wound up today, and of all the property he formerly owned on this side of the Ohio river, Allard has left as his share, but $559.85. His property on the Illinois side, however, is said to be worth thirty or forty thousand dollars.

WROTE JUDGE SANDERS.

An Anxious Sister Asks What Can Be Done for Her Brother.

Judge Sanders is in receipt of a letter from Miss Grace Hartle, of 1813 Goode avenue, St. Louis, relative to the arrest and incarceration of her brother, Preston Hartle, who was held for grand jury action a few weeks ago on a charge of grand larceny. He is the news agent who found a pocket book belonging to a passenger on a St. Louis train and refused to return it, saying that he did not have it. He was held and is still in jail.

His sister says they are orphans, and that he is the only person in the world for whom she cares anything.
Her letter is very pathetic, especially when it is realized that little, if anything, can be done for the young man.

BIT BY DOG.

Tom Wheatley In City to Have Mad Stone Applied.

Tom Wheatley, of Carlisle county, Ky., came to the city today accompanied by his brother, Mr. Beverly Wheatley, to have Capt. Joe Fowler's mad stone applied to his left hand.
Yesterday a stray dog came to the school where the little fellow, who appears to be about twelve years old, attended, and after school he decided to "adopt" him. He stopped to pat him on the head and learned to his regret that the canine objected to being adopted. He was bitten very severely on the left hand, and the animal afterwards snapped at his face.

It then disappeared but was afterwards killed by Zach Pease, it having been acting strangely about his place for some time.

The mad stone was applied to the patient's hand and kept there for several hours this morning at the baptist store.

FRIDAY, NOV. 17, 1899.

The way the Goebels are handling the returns in Kentucky is questionable if there will be any returns at all.

It is a safe bet of ten to one that the rascality done in the late election was the work of men hired by Democrats, the Goebels of the gang.

The election echoes are growing with age instead of diminishing. They are now coming down the valleys and flying over the hills in tones of thunder.

Blackburn is only anxious now for Goebel to get the governorship that the senatorship may be his. Yet the people wonder why there are so few statesmen in the office.

Goebel wants the vote of Nelson county for Taylor thrown out because it was certified to W. F. Taylor, though every vote cast for the general was cast for W. S. Taylor. This is Goebelianism and it will be downright thievery if perpetrated.

The Goebel law knows neither honesty nor law. It was enacted for purposes unjust and criminal. All who support it to the extent of enforcing it are themselves equally as disposed to commit anarchy and revolution. The toleration of the one is the sin of the other.

The respectable Democratic papers of the state are declaring themselves as to the election. Such papers as the Danville Advocate, Mt. Sterling Sentinel, Elizabethtown News and Elkton Progress say without hesitation the vote must be counted as cast and some say Taylor was elected and the result should be so declared.

The people must rule; they will rule. As the Louisville Post says: "Through-out the state there is a growing feeling of restlessness and increased determination to give full force and effect to the people's decision, and it is a fact which cannot be considered too seriously. Having chosen their governor, the people do not intend to have a rejected candidate rule over them."

The Danville Advocate and the Mt. Sterling Sentinel Democrat, two of Goebel's strongest supporters before the election, are both out against the efforts of the Goebels to steal the election. These papers are honest enough to say Taylor is the choice of the people and to desire a confirmation of this result by those whose authority it is to so proclaim. They want a free ballot and a fair count and are emphatic against any steal. An honest warning is sounded by these papers.

The Lexington Herald fears prosecution of the election rascals will cheat the state in the more important respect—the defeat of Goebel's purpose. The Herald says: "These prosecutions, but beware that there is no faltering or lethargy in watching and thwarting the ceaseless efforts of Goebel to have himself counted in. If the public attention can be diverted from the efforts to steal the election to the prosecutions of these lower criminals, and public indignation be satisfied by their punishment the leaders would gladly throw more of them to the lions." The Herald is right.

The obvious determination of the Goebels to try to steal the state is excused by many of the Democrats on the puerile plea, "If the Republicans had the same chance, they would steal it too." They seem to want to believe, and make others believe, that the Republicans of Kentucky have been in the habit of stealing the state every year. Kentucky has never had a Republican governor but once—the present one—and if the Republicans are so proficient in the art the Democrats are now trying to surpass them in, why is it so many years previous?

The government's November crop estimates are just published. They show a cotton crop of 9,500,000 bales which at current prices will be worth not less than $342,500,000; a corn crop of 2,056,000,000 bushels, worth at present prices about $822,000,000; a wheat crop of 516,250,000 bushels, worth $387,000,000, and an oat crop of 785,920,000 bushels, worth $235,000,000. If we could add statistics of hay, tobacco, sugar, potatoes, beans, buckwheat, hops, barley, rye, pork, beef, eggs, poultry, vegetables, fruits, peanuts and the rest of our crops would represent amounts simply inconceivable by the mind.

The Democrats (?) of Calloway held an indignation meeting to denounce Governor Bradley for calling out the militia in Louisville election day to keep down riots. The meeting listened to and cheered some speeches by hot-heads and went home feeling, no doubt, like they had acquitted themselves with credit. There was not an expression, be it said to the discredit of the gang, about election rascality in the part of the thieves in charge of the polls of Goebel and the gang at Frankfort, who are striving by day and night to steal what was not previously stolen. The crowds, condoning law and order, naturally had only a rogue's feeling for their rascally pals, and hence were silent only when they could with respect contended. It is not surprising when the matter is considered in all its phases that Calloway returned the majority it did for the Louisville ticket.

The flashlight of public intelligence and manly indignation in Kentucky will yet prove too powerful for the Goebel conspirators.

A bill to provide for a territorial government for Hawaii will be introduced in congress at the beginning of the session. It will be enacted, it is nearly believed.

The originator of the Gatling gun has invented a Gatling plow that does the work of eight men and twelve horses. Clearly Gatling wants an army of titles for "Gatling" to his rapid fire gun.

Goebels no longer claim that their candidate for governor received the most votes. But they think he is able to cheat a majority of votes just as he cheated a majority in the convention. But the people will not be twice robbed.

Arthur Sewall, of Bath, Me., who it will be recalled, was the adjunct of Mr. Bryan three years ago, is frank enough to say that the result of the late elections is not encouraging for Democratic success next year. Sewall evidently doesn't want a renomination.

Legal row was howling yesterday over the decision of the McCracken county election board on the Emery-Hook case. It is disgusting to hear some people abuse a set of men for being honest until you think who the abusers are. Then the source is considered and the disgust forgotten.

The Louisville Post says there were many men calling themselves Goebel Democrats and serving as election officers, who, when asked to decide falsely in contests before them, would not commit crimes in order to seat an assassin in the governor's chair. It is only a reflection on them that all were not this clean in character.

If the last elections in the several states had been for president the result would have been, given to each party the states known to be of its faith, 283 electoral votes for the Republicans and 162 for the Democrats—a net Republican gain of 28. The returns indicate that expansion has won Kansas and South Dakota over to the Republican party, and if the Democrats persist in fighting it, it will add other western states to the Republican column.

There were lessons and lessons in the election on the 7th. Maryland was the only state where the Democrats nominated strong gold standard men and ignored the Chicago platform; and it is the only one where the Democrats made gains. In all other states the party lost, save that, by the help of Populists, they elected a Populist ticket in Nebraska. Reason cannot be the medicine for a mind that can not see the force of these facts.

The Lexington Herald pointedly asserts that "The daily scenes before the selling board at Louisville furnish striking and disgraceful evidence of this conspiracy. The election commissioners—Caruth and Hoertz—selected the officers of election; the Democrats owned the police and the leaders; every precinct was under Democratic rule; every crime was a Democratic crime; every irregularity was a Democratic irregularity. And since Friday the board has been hearing contests raised by Democrats seeking to disfranchise the voters of Louisville, because of crimes by the very agents, tools and co-conspirators of those who are seeking the benefit of those crimes which they had committed, and reputable lawyers are engaged in pressing this iniquitous claim." There is not a flaw in this indictment.

NO ENCOURAGEMENT.
For Democrats in Election Returns, Says Daniels.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Senator John W. Daniels, of Virginia, in a signed dispatch to the World, says: "I have made no public expressions touching Democratic candidates or platform for 1900, and such as have been attributed to me were in answer to hypothetical questions or made in private conversations."

"It is premature to shape issues before the conditions of 1900 are developed, as they may be very different from those existing now. I am a believer in the principles of the platform of 1896, but it is a self-evident fact that the platform of 1900 may require additions and qualifications to the work of 1896 which we are not then and may not now be apparent."

"I see no encouragement to Democrats in the recent elections."

Thought Transference.
Mrs. Le Count of Chicago (calling on Mrs. Stimulation of Boston)—"I suppose, of course, you have a telephone in your house?"—"Oh, my dear Mrs. Le Count, we use direct thought transference. We have a speaking tube."—Boston Transcript.

Sudden Summons of Mrs. Stacker, a Well known Lady.

News of the sudden death of Mrs. Mary Stacker at San Francisco reached the city yesterday. She lived at Carlsville, Tenn., but was formerly a Miss Gracey, of Edgelyville, and married Col. John Stacker, of Philadelphia.

She went to San Francisco, Cal., about two months ago to be present when the First Tennessee regiment returned home from the Philippines. She had a large number of chrysanthemums to present to each soldier as he passed, and had rendered great assistance in preparing for the return of the Tennessee soldiers to Nashville.

Her nephew, Col. Gracey Childers, is in command of the regiment, and this is one of the reasons the took such an interest in the home coming of the regiment.

She was quite wealthy, being worth several hundred thousand dollars. Her husband died about ten years ago, and the remains of his wife, who was stricken amidst festivities, will be taken from San Francisco to Edgelyville and buried beside him.

A. H. THURNESS, Mgr. Willis Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, Ohio, writes: "I have been affected with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones, accompanied by excruciating pains. Other medicines only gave temporary relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure, the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, little fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1000 worth of good."

Near Old City, Ky., George Dove, a half-breed Indian, cut off Albert James' head with an ax. James was aboard at Dove's home and was accused by the number of criminal intimacy with Dove's wife.

Mrs. Thomas Riddiman, Marshallville, Mich., writes: "I was troubled with Salt Rheum for over thirteen years, had tried a number of doctors without relief. My husband bought a box of Banner Salve, which I applied two or three times and my hands began to get better. In a short time they were entirely cured."

"THE TURTLE."

The audience at Morton's opera house last night to witness the talk of Turtle, was fairly large, although there were few ladies there. Those who expected to see anything shocking, however, were badly disappointed. The disrobing scene was a very tame affair, and there was nothing about it to inspire such fear among the ladies who remained away on account of it. The comedy was very laughable and the audience would have been well pleased but for the fact that there was disappointment among the occupants of the bald headed quarters.

HOME-MADE PHILOSOPHY.

That man has a grate hart in him hoo loves a wif men bewas they are yooman.

If wuf was az eezey az tockin, the polytheism wud make it awl down hill ridin for the poor.

Hopewitout judgment iz like plantin in a tree witout roots; it will perish witout producin anny fruit.

A maff don't kno near so much az he did wot he iz, but most of the things he knoed then wuzent so.

He iz a good man hoo feeds the sparrows throo the winter, in spite of them eatin his lettis durin the summer.

Distance makes the stars of the hevins look small, but the nearer yoo git too a star on earth, the littler he growze.

We shuddest destroy the property of the trusts, but we shud take the trusts and run em to bless the people, and not to rob em.

Grate throes enter grate minds, but generally the grate mind iz too little too hold the grate that long enuf to jot it down far footyure yuse.

Sum men are eddykated and narver, wile otherze are illiterate and broad. Hooke eddykashun sumtime only awells the head on the outside.

The arm that twirls the hammer is stronger than the arm that twirls the pen, but its not az slick. Slickness iz the slippery sav of success.

A yung manne ambishun can't be fedged by the lile of his collar. Sumtime he puts dubble the polish on his shoos that he gits on hiz eddykashun, that kin be got.

We may be famous and we may be grate, loved and respected by the hole world, but sooner or later there will cum a time wen no wun else will receive us but the spade-cut buzzum of old mother earth.

Man goze singin up wun side of life's hill, and sighin down the other. Youth furnishes the lile for life's cart weelze on the sunny side, and old age puts down the brake az we trundle down the shade.

We are walkin on the grave of the past tords the birthplace of the footyure, doubtin ware the behint went to, and knowin less about ware the man ahead iz comin from. Trooly the wizum of the world cud be put into a match box.

Religyun iz a tree in the garden of civilizashun, and skepicks hev awtwayze bin loopin off iz uselesss limbs and keepin it strait. The day haz now cum wen religyun must do something for the common peopul, or skepicks will dig her up by the roots.

The idee of readin the dead langwidges too git a littel bit of usefule eddykashun that kin be got outen the plain inglish, remindze us of a farmer thrashin wheat and try with the old-time flail, wile the steam thrasher stands puffin in the shed in awl its modern manhood.

Busy Hen. J. Townsley, of Science Hill, Ky., owns an enterprising hen. She is of the Plymouth Rock variety, and there has been nothing in her cluck to indicate extraordinary ambition heretofore. But the other morning, Mrs. Townsley found in the spot particularly favored by this industrious bird an egg 3 1/2 inches long and 7 1/4 inches in circumference around the waist.

This was in itself an evidence of overture, in on pickin the egg up an openin broke in the brittle shell and inside could be seen another perfect egg, shell and all, of the usual size. The large egg had yelk and white, the same as any other egg. The neighbors are now beggin for slips from this hen. They want to grow a few like her.
